

Upcoming new programs and initiatives:

For Adults:

- Computer Classes:
 - Free eBooks for tablets, smartphones & more with Overdrive!
 - Wednesday 1/7, 2:00-4:00pm
 - Monday 1/26, 6:30-8:30pm
 - iPad for Beginners:
 - Thursday 1/15, 2:00-4:00pm
- No-Knead Bread Program
 - Saturday, February 7th, 2-4pm
 - Learn to make easy, delicious, whole-grain homemade bread!
 - Presented by the Master Food Volunteers and the Virginia Cooperative Extension Office

For Kids & Teens

- Kodu Club: kids learn to create, build, and code games and worlds—1st Monday of every month @ 6:30PM
- Assorted STEM programs (Science-Technology-Engineering-Math)

Virtual Reality Viewers

maKeymaKey circuit board controllers

Kodu Club!

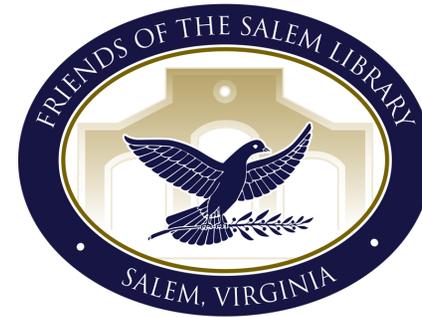

Meets the 1st Monday from 6:30-8:00 PM
Catering All Ages

Are you into gaming, coding, or computers?
Are you tired of just playing games and want to BUILD and CREATE? Then our new club is for you!

Join the Salem Library Kodu Club to design worlds, program characters, and explore the realm of gaming and coding in a way you've never seen before!

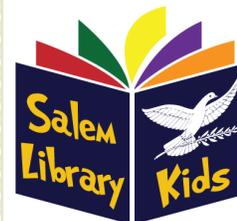

Call the Salem Library at 375-3089 or stop in to register! Ages 10-16

Questions? Ask for David or Ann!

Library Report to the Friends of Salem Library

January 11, 2015

Initiatives sponsored by the FOSLs in Fall 2014:

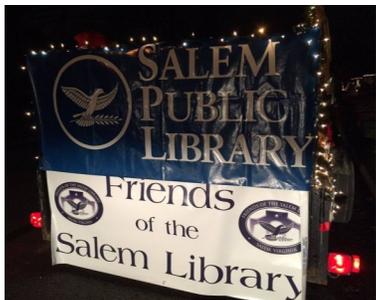

Tellabration:

- November 22nd, 9am-5pm
- Attendees: 30
- The participating members from the Virginia Storytellers Alliance were very pleased with the attendance, and they all expressed their gratitude for the support from the FOSLs and the library
- Attendees all had a chance to tell stories - very entertaining and engaging!
- Several local storytellers are working on starting a storytelling guild based out of our library, and possibly a mentoring program for youths as well

Salem Christmas Parade 2014

 Thank you for your support!

(Footage available on Youtube <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=0q4g88GPz00> — @ 45:03)

New Programs we've started offering:

• Tinker Time:

- ages 0-5
- Books, puzzles, music and dancing, playdough, arts and crafts, blocks, puppets, and more!
- Opportunity for younger kids to engage with others, play and build, and become comfortable in a library setting to help get them excited about libraries and storytime

• Book Buddies:

- Kids get to read to pets from the Salem Animal Shelter to:
 - Work on their reading skills with a non-judgmental, furry friend
 - Provide homeless pets with companionship (and maybe a home!)

